Μόλις τελείωσε ο αγώνας, ο Κώστας Φύκας άρχισε να ανταποδίδει τους χαιρετισμούς και την αποθέωση του κόσμου και ουσιαστικά έδωσε ένα σόου μαζί του. «Δέχτηκα γι’ αυτόν τον υπέροχο κόσμο, την οικογένειά μου και τον προπονητή μου που τόσο με έχει στηρίξει. Είναι αναμφίβολα η πιο ευτυχισμένη στιγμή στην καριέρα μου και σήμερα η πιο συγκινητική», ήταν τα πρώτα λόγια του Κωνσταντίνου Φύκα.

«Λέγεται είναι οι στιγμές στην καριέρα ενός αθλητή που μπορεί να περάσει καλά και ενός πέρασε απές υπέροχα».

The Music Festival of Thessaloniki is pleased to offer four free educational concerts to students through the Cultural Music Education Series. Each concert will take place at 11:00 am at the downtown venue of the Concert Hall of Thessaloniki.

International artists and local music instructors will perform on stage and describe their vocal or instrumental background, the history of their music and the professional experiences that have led to their success. Each age-specific event is approximately 50 minutes in length. Teachers and students should not want to miss these exciting educational performances. Each performance is offered at no cost to schools.

Reservations for performances will be taken on a “first-come, first-served” basis. A study guide will be offered for each show. Schools must provide transportation and chaperones for the students.

All performances begin at 11:00 am. For more information, please call (2310 234567). If you wish to register for one or more of the concerts, simply fill out the form of this brochure and return it. We look forward to seeing you at the Cultural Music Education Series.

Research has shown that if children listen to classical music at an early age they will become very intelligent. Students will have the chance to attend pieces of music from all periods of music history, on piano and string instruments. Great violinists will inspire students with their performance.

The local cultural centre presents a delightful adaptation of the fairy tale classic, in which the scary wolf turns into a comic character and students learn important lessons about life. An entertaining musical with two different endings: One, the audience decides to forgive the wolf, the second, the audience does not trust that the wolf will mend his ways.

If you choose to attend this excellent musical you will learn the importance of personal safety, proper diet, and good health…

Peru Negro is a thrilling 26-member group presenting dazzling dances, colourful costumes, electrifying rhythms, and historic verses. They perform music that originated in Colonial Peru and they have passed it down through generations. Peru Negro performs all over the world and their fans consider them as “Ambassadors of Peruvian Culture.” They sing out in a chorus: “Black is my color, and proud I feel.” You will never forget their melodic guitar and passionate singing if you choose to attend their performance.

The concert will present Music and Dance from Macedonia and Thrace. Both regions are exceptionally rich in folk music, song and dance. The concert will open with a traditional ‘zournades’ trio from the village of Goumenissa in Central Macedonia. Two zourna players, accompanied on the daouli (large drum), commonly perform this kind of music at weddings and festivals throughout the Balkans. If you like Greek folk music, register for this event.

If you are interested in musicals, you can attend the event(s) _________________ a. Where does most of children’s spending money come from?

b. What other ways do they use to get some more money?

c. What is pester power? Who has it?

Pocket Money and Pester Power

Big companies and advertisers know that children aged between 3 and 14 are the most powerful consumer group. The total spending power of children in this age group is over sixty million pounds per year! So, how do they get so much money? How do they persuade their parents to spend so much money on things for them? Weekly pocket money or a monthly allowance is one way for children to get some money to spend. The other way is by asking again and again, in other words, by pestering their parents until the parents buy what they want.

Young People’s Consumer Habits - Fact File

Sources of income

Parents give 60% of pocket money.
Other sources of money are:

a. Odd job earnings (helping with chores around the house for money, a paper round delivering newspapers to houses in their area, cleaning Dad’s car, babysitting)

b. Handouts such as presents of money from friends or relatives

c. Saturday jobs (some teenagers work on Saturdays e.g. in clothes or music shops, supermarkets, sports centres)

Pester power is increasing every year. Children as young as three years old pester their parents to buy the latest videos, sweets and toys.

Lesson 3 The problem page

A. This is a problem page from a children’s magazine. Read the letter.

What is Maria’s problem?
Who is Sonia?

Dear Sonia,

I am writing to you for advice because I don’t know what to do. I am 11 years old and I like music a lot. I really want to learn to play a musical instrument… I would like to learn to play the guitar but I live in a remote village and there are neither music teachers nor any musical instruments in my school. The nearest big city is about eighty kilometres far from where I live.

My class visited a music festival in Thessaloniki a week ago and I was so pleased to listen to musicians play so many different instruments. I also heard that if children listen to classical music, they become smarter. I know that if I had money, I would buy many musical instruments for my school.

This is my problem. What could I do? I really want to learn to play the guitar.

Please answer as soon as possible.

Yours,
Maria

B. Imagine you are Sonia. Send Maria a letter giving her some advice and ideas on what to do (think about placing an advert for a music teacher or visiting the local cultural centre etc.).

Follow the layout of a letter of advice:

- greeting
- an opening paragraph
- main part
- closing paragraph
- signing off

Remember to give advice using expressions such as:

If I were you, I would…
You could…
You should… if…
Why don’t you…

Set phrases for the opening paragraph:

I am writing to give you some advice about…
I hope I can help you with your problem…

Well, that’s what I believe…
I really hope everything goes well.
Keep in touch. …
I am looking forward to hearing from you.

What Can I Do?

Mark came back from school very sad. His mother looked at him and said: ‘You look very sad. It seems that you had a rough day. What happened?’

‘Today, in science, the teacher was talking about Earth Day and the environment. Earth Day is a day when every person promises to do something to protect our world from pollution. Mrs. Green was telling us that many companies do not do their best in order to get rid of their industrial waste. She said that our world is getting dirtier and that many animals and plants are becoming extinct. She wants us to think of something we can do to help. On the way home, I thought that there is nothing I can do. I can’t stop the companies from polluting our air and dumping toxic waste in the sea and I can’t save all of the animals! There is not anything that I can do to make a difference.’

Mark’s mother sat for a minute, thinking. ‘Let me tell you a story that your grandfather told me. I don’t know where he heard it, but I think that it might help you think about the problem in a different way.’ She began:

‘One morning a man was walking down a beach covered with dying starfish.

The night before the tide had been especially strong and had washed up thousands of starfish on shore. The man was sorry that all the starfish would die on the beach. He came upon a boy who was throwing starfish back into the ocean as fast as he could. The boy was out of breath and it was obvious that he had done a lot of work as he looked tired.

‘Son,” the man said, “you might as well quit. There are thousands of them. There is no way you can make any sort of a difference.”

The boy did not even stop in what he was doing. He kept bending and throwing but as he did, he spoke to the man: “I can make a difference to this one, and this one, and this one.”

And the man knew the boy was right. He began to help return the animals to their home, and kept thinking that sometimes little children can teach elderly people real lessons in life.

Mark stared at his mother. “But he did make a difference, didn’t he? To every starfish that he threw back in?” His mother nodded, smiling. He sat for a moment, thinking about what his mother had said.

“So, what it means is that even though I can’t change everything, I can make a big difference by doing the little things that matter?”

Connie: Hi! I’m Connie Lung.
Harry: And I’m Harry Wheezer. We’re here at the Environmental Protection Agency to cover a late-breaking story. Some of the world’s worst air pollutants are picketing the EPA to protest clean-air legislation.
Connie: In tonight’s special report, we will tell you where these pollutants come from and the ways they can hurt people and other living things.
Harry: Let’s introduce the folks at home to our pollutant, Carbon Monoxide.
Carbon Monoxide: Yeah, what I do best. I get into the air when cars and trucks don’t burn fuel well – but you can’t see or smell me.
Connie: Then how can we tell when you’re around?
Carbon Monoxide: You’ll find out when you breathe me in! I can give you a bad headache and make you really tired (gives an evil laugh).
Harry: Next we’d like you to meet some of the most dangerous air pollutants – the Toxins. (Toxins walk over, carrying posters and chanting.)
Toxin 1: Hey, man, we come from just about everywhere. Chemical plants, dry cleaners, dangerous-waste sites, paint factories...
Toxin 2: Yeah, and cars and trucks dump a lot of us into the air, too.
Connie: Scientists say you cause cancer and other kinds of diseases.
Toxin 3: Yea, but they can’t prove a thing!
Connie: Next we’d like you to meet Sulphur Dioxide.
Harry: I’m sure the folks at home would like to know how you get into our air.
Sulphur: Well, don’t they read the newspapers? I’ve been making the front page at least once a week! Most of the time, I come out from chimneys when power plants burn coal to make electricity.
Connie: And what kinds of nasty things do you do?
Sulphur: Nasty – that’s me! (Snickers) I think it’s cool to make it hard for some people to breathe. And I can make trees and other plants grow more slowly. But here’s the most rotten thing I do: When I get way up into the air, I react with oxygen in water in the sky, and you get acid rain! (Sprays water at the audience).

Take photos or a video of your performance and put them in your portfolio.

B. Reading an Article

Read the magazine article quickly and find out what James Bond looked like at the age of 13:

Breaking News

James Bond, aged 13
Have you ever wanted to know what a teenage James Bond looked like? Well now you have your chance to find out. The family of Ian Fleming, creator of 007, has approved of a drawing of the super spy in his schoolboy days. The illustration is used on the cover of a new set of children’s books about the young Bond. James, aged thirteen, is very different from the handsome and sophisticated man he grows up to be. The young Bond is presented as a tall and scruffy teenager. He wears baggy pants and has a mop of messy hair. He looks quite handsome and has no acne, no crooked teeth, not any other teenage problems. If you look closely enough at him, you’ll see he looks slightly like Sean Connery.

The young Bond books are written by a Fleming fan, Charlie Higson. Mr Higson said that the picture of James as a schoolboy greatly helped him develop the character: “Now I know what he looks like. Young Bond and his world have really come alive”. His first novel, Silver Fin, was a bestseller as soon as it hit the shelves in early April. James is described as a public schoolboy at Eton. His first mission is to end the evil actions of a scientist who experiments on human beings. The scientist’s son is one of James’s classmates and is also a nasty character. The book does well in showing how the young James Bond gained his expertise in becoming a super spy.
